Praise the Lord! Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever! Psalm 106:1

Each day, but especially in this season of abundance I am reminded of God's rich blessings in my life. Even when I face challenges, I know anew His faithfulness and find hope in Him. I give thanks for the beauty of the earth, shelter, food, clothing, family, friends, and meaningful work. I give thanks for a church family that is caring and generous. God recklessly gives all these gifts and I am bathed in His love and grace. I am blessed beyond measure. In return, may I/we show generosity and be a blessing to others. Do I live with a heart of scarcity or a heart of abundance? It's a choice each day.

One of my all-time favorite songs is The Goodness of God sung by many artists, written by Jason Ingram, Brian Johnson, Ed Cash, Ben Fielding, and Jenn Johnson.

The excerpts from the lyrics fit with this season and express the depth of my gratitude to our Almighty God. May you too, know the goodness of God in your life.

"I love Your voice
You have led me through the fire
In the darkest night
You are close like no other
I've known You as a Father
I've known You as a friend
I have lived in the goodness of God

And all my life You have been faithful
All my life You have been so so good
With every breath that I am able
Oh I will sing of the goodness of God ..."
